Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-61 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination does not fairly suggest the claimed invention of synchronizing software products and allows fixing software product from software inventory. Specifically, claims 1, 11, 21, 30 and 50 are directed to software fixing and software product synchronizing for target computers with update controller in between one or more computers to that by synchronizing software in a network, system administrators will continue to rediscover software problems, will have more computers that are at different software fix levels, will have to keep track of the software fix level of each computer in the network, and will have to manually update each computer in the network.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
